POST BOX 17001, CALCUTTA-700 032

THE INSTITUTE

The Indian Institute of Chemical Engineers was founded on May 18, 1947. Late Dr Hiralal Roy the founder of chemical engineering education in India, was the Founder President and it was through his initiative, vision and endeavour, that the institute came into being. Like many other institutions, it also started in an humble way with only 30 members, but with the passage of time it expanded both in number and its activities and the Institute can now justify its claim to be the main forum of chemical engineering profession in the country, with more than 13000 members and 36 Regional Centres. The Institute is a body registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1961.

MAJOR OBJECTIVES

- To promote the advancement of Chemical Engineering Science;
- To advance professional standards and to imbibe and maintain ethical practice among its members in professional conduct and dealings;
- To act as an anchor for the professional interests of Chemical Engineers in general and members of the Institute in particular, and to do all things necessary in connection therewith;
- To serve as lead and supreme body on all matters pertaining to the teaching and profession of Chemical engineering for continuous upgradation of the standards;
- To initiate conferences and to transact business on administrative, academic and technical matters relating to the profession of Chemical Engineering;
- To encourage and financially support research in Chemical Engineering;
- To conduct examinations and prescribe syllabi and to award diplomas and certificates;
- To grant national awards, scholarships, prizes to selected professionals, young scientists, academics and peer groups for their contribution to national advancement;
- To publish and maintain an organ of the Institute, and similar other publications;
- To assist necessitous members and dependents of the deceased members.
