

Rights and Privileges for IChE Organisational Members

- Profile of the company (with turnover over Rs. 10 crore) or its CEO will be printed in IChE Newsletter on enrolment.
- Organisational Members will receive a certificate of membership on enrolment.
- Maximum four delegates (depending upon the annual turnover of the Organisational Member) will be allowed to attend the annual conferences of the Institute (CHEMCON), waiving the requirement of the delegate fees.
- Organisational Members will receive a copy of the Institute's Journal, INDIAN CHEMICAL ENGINEER, and the Institute Newsletter.
- Organisational Members will be allowed to use IChE logo in their letterheads.
- They shall be kept informed of all programmes of the Institute regularly and their official delegates shall be allowed in programmes, such as, short-term technical courses, continuing education courses, technical symposia, seminars, etc., involving delegate fees at a concessional fee of 75% of the normal rates for such programmes. IChE Regional Centres shall be advised to do likewise for programmes organised by them.